A third feature of the campaign will be automobile clinics, that will travel to every part of the State. The traveling clinic (an equipped auto,) with a physician and nurse will go to those towns and sections where a dispensary is not possible and examine, give advice and treat all afflicted, and those suspected of the disease.

The death rate in Delaware is far above that of any other State in the Union, but if the present Xmas seal campaign is successful and the citizens of Delaware will cooperate with the effort to abolish the disease during the next 12 months, the mortality will be materially reduced in the year.

The seals sell for a penny. They make an attractive ornament for Xmas packages.

The campain has the indorsement of Governor Townsend and Red Cross workers in every community. Ninety-two cents of every dollar received will be spent in Delaware, and the remainder after expenses of this campaign are paid, will be divided between State and National Tuberculosis Associations.

Don't fail to see the pageant on Sunday Evening in St. Anne's Episcopal Church.

Memoriam

In memory of Mrs. Marion A. Downey, who departed this life Dec. 8, 1917:

When mother breathed her last farewell,
The stroke meant more than tongue can tell,
This world seems quite another place,
Without the smile of her dear face.

Oh that smiling face I miss,
The one that I so loved to kiss,
Dearest, how I miss you more each day,
Since the hour you passed away.

Two years have passed, our hearts still sore,
As time goes on, we miss her more.
She sleeps, we leave her in peace to rest
The parting was painful, but God knoweth best.

Sadly missed by
DAUGHTERS AND SON.

A... atheist is not ... who says, "There is no." An atheist is a man who lives as if there were no God. What time do I give each week to thought of God, prayer to God, communion with God, conscious service of God? What portion of my work is for Him? What portion of my pleasure is with Him? What portion of my income is invested in him? The government reminds me that I am only a steward and tells me how much I shall pay over for the commonwealth.

Do I let the Kingdom of God go begging because Church and State are not synonymous?

FIRST PRESENTATION

The Curtain will give its first... tation in the Century Club on ... and Saturday evenings, Decemb... and 20th. This first performance promises to be of exceptionally good quality. It consists of three entertaining one-act plays.

"The Neighbors" is an amusing sketch of American rural life, portraying the practical, kindly helpfulness of "the neighbors" in time of need. Humor chiefly, but an undercurrent of seriousness. This play is very realistic and the accompanying dialogue is exceptionally good.

"The Hour Glass," by William B. Yeats is a very interesting and effective Irish morality play in which the atheistic wiseman through the words of the boob and the angel come to a belief in fairies, angels and God. This is the most suggestive and imaginative of the three plays.

"The Maker of Dreams" is a charming and amusing fantasy of poetic and tender beauty. Pierrot and Pierrette, in their lodgings, somewhere in France of romance, are unhappy; Pierrette loves Pierrot, but he thinks of her only as his acting partner, never as a woman to love. They are visited by Cupid in the form of a middle-aged "business man," who shows Pierrot that Pierrette is the ideal for whom he has always been seeking. The play displays ease and taste in its every phase.

Fogel's Ad. describes many fine and useful Xmas things, besides Toys of all kinds—a handsome display worth seeing.

On all taxes paid before the first day of December there shall be an abatement of three per centum. On all taxes paid during the month of December there shall be no abatement whatever. cows need such extra attention ordinarily during the pasture period the animals of their own accord keep themselves clean.

The enthusiastic use of the brush and currycomb, supplemented by a moist cloth, as siege guns against dust and dirt, are good mediums for increased production, according to the opinions of progressive dairymen reported to the United States department of agriculture. They maintain that the clean coats and luxurious feelings of contentment induce increased production of milk. If you doubt the profits from grooming dairy cows, put it up to Bossie and her stable mates via the referendum-vote method.

From a sanitary standpoint, the densely matted, filthy and caked coat of the dirty cow is one of the main sources of contamination in milk. Filth dries on the body of the animal, and, unless it is removed previous to milking, a portion of it is likely to fall into the milk pail and carry undesirable bacteria with it. Hence, grooming cows is a fundamental safeguard against inferior, germ-laden milk. Where cows are groomed daily during their period of close confinement an attendant requires only about two or three minutes a cow to prepare and gloss up the animals as though for a banquet. On the other hand, it is difficult and time-consuming to clean off cows which have been kept without grooming in a dirty stable.

The commendable practice is to groom and clean the cows daily at such a time between the milking periods that there will be abundant opportunity for the dust put into circulation to settle so that it will not contaminate the milk as it is drawn from the cows. It is necessary for best results to wipe off the udder and flanks of each cow with a moist, clean cloth just before milking, in order to remove all the surface dust and dirt which has escaped the previous clean-up processes. It is recommended that dairymen exercise special care to provide plenty of material so that at all times they may use clean cloths in preparing the cows for milking, as too commonly the wiping cloth, unless carefully handled, be- source of contamination. What is a Good Value?

A good value is anything that gives back as much comfort and contentment as it costs.

A cheap shoe at $4, that squeaks and pinches isn't half as good value as a $7.50 or $10.00 pair that's——smooth silent and serene.——A $50 seat at the ring side isn't any better value than a $2 berth in the Bleachers if the fights been fixed beforehand and a $20 Overcoat of part cotton that let's the wind in isn't near as good a value as the $40 Overcoat that keeps the heat in.

If you're going to buy a Coat for yourself, just remember that you can't get a good Value unless you get a good coat—and you won't get a good coat unless you pay a fair price but you CAN catch a good COLD if you don't
